

FISH HOMELY

每家一魚

香港生物多樣性高，城市化令原有自然環境損耗消失迅速，各區溪流亦受到不同程度的污染與破壞。「每家一魚」計劃旨在保護本土自然生態及野生生物，透過簡易有趣的生態實驗，將保育方法與思想分享到大眾，帶動市民親身參與保育。

Hong Kong is high in biodiversity, the process of urbanization resulting in rapid damages and vanishes of natural environments. Wide range of water sources, streams and rivers, are also being threatened by pollutions and destructions. "Fish Homely" is a program aims to protect native aquatic habitats/biotopes and creatures through education and implementation, nurtures and inspires the future generation of conservationists.

「每家一魚」由建立一個小魚缸開始，將自然環境引進家中，為本地濕地保育工作提供良好的練習基礎，每人家中建造水生生物的生態家園，踏出人類與自然共存的第一步。

By setting up a small Nature Aquarium, "Fish Homely" introduces natural habitats/biotopes to homes, provides fundamental practices for local wetland conservations in future. Building specific habitats/biotopes for native aquatic creatures may become an important step for Human-Nature Symbiosis.
